

Flip Side is an acoustic trio featuring smooth vocal harmonies in their repertoire of swing and popular music from the '20s, '30s, and '40s. Robin Nelson and Bonnie Donnay are the voices of Flip Side, accompanying themselves on bass, ukulele, melodica, and accordion. Robin and Bonnie are both accomplished solo vocalists, but together their voices blend to create something special. Ace guitarist, Jan Stroup, fills out the trio and adds an improvisational element to the songs. Their music is often light-hearted and humorous, and although they play plenty of well-known songs, they also collect many obscure tunes. The Flip Side, if you will.
