

Sammy Purviance plays his upbeat brand of acoustic Southern-style rock, folk, country, gospel, and originals. A native Virginian and experienced performer, Sammy has played local restaurants, coffee houses, care and rehab centers, and churches since moving to the Twin Cities in 2016. His humorous stories of the early days in the south and of his family delight his audiences.

Check out his press packet, Music videos, and playlists on his popular website @SammyPMusic.com.