

RJ Vocal launched his songwriting career in June 2019, when he also started playing guitar in addition to his longtime piano playing. He is known for his captivating and powerful voice, beautiful melodies, and very personal lyrics. His first solo show was at a coffee shop in Hopkins, MN in December 2019. His first solo original song was released in May 2020. His first fully produced song was released in April 2021.