

Tea for Three offers an original and authentic brew of North Atlantic musical cultures that is truly “steeped in tradition”. Tea for Three is a new trio formed by David and Suzanne Rhees of Bundle & Go joined by the wonderful cellist Mattie Snyder. Their mission is to explore the roots and branches of Celtic traditional music. They play an eclectic mix of vigorous traditional dance tunes, slow listening pieces, and memorable songs, culled from the music of Ireland, Scotland, Wales, England, Scandinavia, Cape Breton, Québec, Appalachia and more. Their instruments are equally diverse: fiddle, flute, whistle, accordion, cello, mandolin, guitar, ukulele and feet.
