

The Lindula Brothers are John and Brian Lindula, a Folk and Bluegrass music duo, hailing from Taconite Country. John is the lead vocalist and plays both guitar and mandolin, while Brian plays banjo and provides backup vocals. Raised in Cherry, MN, both graduated college from the University of Minnesota Duluth with degrees in education. John now lives and works in Duluth and Brian lives and works in Grand Rapids, MN. The Lindula Brothers play shows across the 218, performing original music written by John, and covers of both modern and traditional songs. Covers include selections from Old Crow Medicine Show, Trampled by Turtles, Bob Dylan, Willie Nelson, Woody Guthrie, and more! Traditional numbers include folk favorites from America, Finland, Ireland, and the UK.
