

Murphy and Price

Carol Sue Price and Michael Murphy have played together for over a decade as members of several local bands. This is their first performance as a duo.

Carol Sue is an accomplished fiddler whose playing is expressive, thoughtful, and sometimes even comical. She has won awards for her playing and is a former judge of fiddling contests at the Minnesota State Fair.

Michael backs up his strong baritone vocals with fingerstyle guitar plus an occasional touch of urban hillbilly banjo.

Please join them as they launch a new combo.
