

Miners and Gardeners is the musical project of Minneapolis-based songwriter Dan Moriarty. The songs blend raw vocals alongside expansive arrangements, introspective lyrics, and quiet waves of sound that occasionally roar and bite.

Inspired where indie and alternative rock meets singer-songwriters – think REM, Death Cab for Cutie, Band of Horses, and The National, as well as lesser known classic acts like the Go-Betweens.